Hail to the heights!

Granted – the feeling of being above it all can also be applied to our elevated location. Scientists have also discovered that living at altitude doesn't just make you more relaxed but also healthier and happier. The increased release of serotonin, dopamine and endorphins creates a greater sense of balance and enhances good moods. This would perhaps explain the sunny disposition of our guests... Or could that be due to the numerous rays of sunshine that you can catch here? Or the wide range of leisure and relaxation facilities on the doorstep? Whatever the reason: a holiday at the Bichlhof is recommended from the highest level.

Welcome to the Bichlhof – inside charm, outside sunshine.

Andrea & Walter Hopfner
and the Bichlhof wellness team here to meet your every need

NEW! Our trainer ace, Heiner Eder, is leaving us to start his well-earned retirement. He will be replaced by Freddy Messenlechner, a certified tennis trainer, who will be responsible for the perfect "exchange of blows" on our courts. Freddy coaches top young players from throughout Austria, is a member of the Tyrolean Tennis Association's (ITV) coaching staff, works as an Austrian Tennis Association (ÖTV) coach during ETA tournaments, and plays for the Kitzbüheler tennis club in the highest league (national league A) ... We are delighted to have found in him a worthy successor to our Heiner and are looking forward to many interesting matches.
